

Friends of the Albert Lea Public Library donates all proceeds to library programs.

Friends of the Albert Lea Public Library and the Fountain Lake Bookstore encourage lifelong learning and enrichment throughout the community by raising funds and providing financial support for equipment, materials, and programs not covered by the general library budget.

We appreciate the generous support of the community. By your book donations, purchases, and memberships, we are able to continue our mission.

Friends of the Albert Lea Public Library provides funds for popular programs at the library such as these:

- Summer Reading Program
- Bingo Reads
- Writing Contest
- Music & Movement Instruments
- Special performers during the year
- Youth Book Pals
- Cartoon Artist
- Adult Book Club
- Computer Reference Databases
- Adult Programming

We do not accept magazines, newspapers, encyclopedias or miscellaneous items.

Volunteers

Volunteers work in three hour shifts at the Fountain Lake Bookstore about two times a month on average.

They may also help at the two book sales during the year.

At the bookstore they assist customers, ring up sales, shelve books, keep the shelves filled, and take donations to the sorting area. Volunteers work in teams of two.
